

LAIA

LOCH AWE IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION

OPEN DAY 2011

Sunday 7th August 11 a.m. – 4 p.m.

At Loch Awe Boats by Cladich

A chance for anglers, locals and visitors of all ages to enjoy a fun packed day out on the banks of Legendary Loch Awe and to learn how to tie and cast a fly, learn all about wild brown trout and pike and how to fish for them and find out about the wildlife, history & archaeology of the loch & about the work of the Association and the Argyll Fisheries Trust.

Judging and prize giving of the “Rivers in the Classroom Project” local schools competition

FREE

* Entry

* Parking

*Toilets

* Expert Pike Fishing tuition (PAAS)

* Expert Fly Fishing tuition (SANA)

* Information and displays

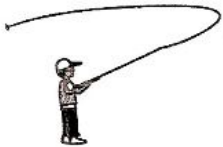

* Fly casting competition (All tackle provided)

* Birds of Prey

* Try tying your own

*Loch Watch safety presentation

* Barbeque 12pm -2pm

Refreshment Stall Home Baking Stall
Raffle Tombola

Directions: 3 miles west of Cladich on the B840.

Follow Signs for Loch Awe Boats

All are invited and everyone is welcome